CSO Arranges Career Guidance Session by the Bank of Punjab

On October 27, 2022, the Career Services Office (CSO) at LUMS invited Syed Ghazanfar Ahmed Waqas, the Head of Instructional Design & Delivery at the Bank of Punjab to talk to students about planning their professional journey. Mr. Waqas talked about how students can start building a professional network before starting their careers and shared tips on effective networking.

Mr. Waqas highlighted the importance of having clarity of vision before making the right professional connections instead of randomly connecting with people. "Students should explore how they can solve a certain problem that exists. Once there is a clear vision and a solution to a problem, students should tap the right industry or network, and connect with a suitable mentor," he suggested.

The session ended with students asking various questions related to professional networking. The highly interactive session shed light on how students from different backgrounds and majors can use their social circle for networking to build their careers. Read More

The NOP Team Visits Azad Jammu & Kashmir for Outreach Efforts

The National Outreach Programme (NOP) visited Azad Jammu & Kashmir (AJK) for its outreach efforts, amid captivating natural beauty. The NOP Team visited different schools and colleges in Muzaffarabad, Rawalakot, Kotli, Bagh and Dhirkot to help students learn more about the signature LUMS scholarship programme and how they can avail the scholarship.

The NOP is a unique initiative making quality education accessible to those belonging to underserved areas across. It is an embodiment of LUMS' core principles of diversity and accessibility. The Programme is the global winner of the Platinum Award by the Council for Advancement and Support for Education (CASE) 2021 for 'Best Practices in Diversity, Equity and Inclusion'.

The Team conducted in-class sessions in colleges, engaging more than 800 students in different sessions. The NOP Centre also formulated a partnership with Read Foundation to deliver NOP's core idea of educational awareness in all Read Foundation Colleges across Kashmir.

Students were informed of how they can apply to the NOP Summer Coaching Session and get admitted to the LUMS Undergraduate programme on a 100% scholarship. The team also interacted with attendees of Summer Coaching Session 2022 in colleges in AJK and requested them to share their experiences with their peers on stage to motivate them to apply to LUMS. NOP Centre Starts its Annual Outreach Efforts in Gilgit Baltistan

Like every year, the National Outreach Programme (NOP) Centre commenced its annual outreach from Gilgit Baltistan - the land of mountains and the epitome of Pakistan's beauty, touching base with more than 1400 prospective students. The NOP Centre plans its annual outreach with the objective of not just seeking out bright yet underprivileged students across Pakistan but also promoting the message of higher education.

The NOP Centre team made several visits and presentations to different educational institutions, including cadet colleges, reaching many students from various ethnicities and cultural heritage. Furthermore, walk-in sessions were also conducted. In a series of presentations, students were informed about how they can apply to the NOP Summer Coaching Session and how it places them on the right track for eventual admission to the LUMS undergraduate programme on a 100% scholarship. The presentations highlighted the state-of-the-art facilities available at LUMS and the University's focus on producing cutting-edge research. The team also shared an overview of the scholarship programme and the application process. Some of the cities visited were Sherqilla, Ghahkuch, Hunza, Karimabad, Skardu, Shigar, Ghizer and Kharmang, with visits to 15 colleges and reach hundreds of students. Read More

France Education Fair Opens Doors to Higher Education in France for LUMS Students

LUMS collaborated with the Embassy of France to organise a first-of-its-kind Choose 'France Education Fair' through France's Cooperation and Cultural Affairs department at the campus. The event aimed to unlock higher education opportunities for LUMS students at leading French universities, besides facilitating an informal interaction between the students, faculty and French delegates to discuss educational prospects and avenues for bilateral cooperation.

The Expo began with a tour of the university campus for the French delegates. In his opening remarks at the first session, Dr. Arshad Ahmad, Vice Chancellor, LUMS, welcomed the delegates by saying, "We strongly focus on making a long-lasting impact through promoting cultural diversity and inclusion.

The French Expo will unlock world-class education opportunities for our students and broaden their horizons through exposure to new sets of knowledge, experiences, societies and cultures. We are honoured and delighted to host the worthy French guests here who have been extremely supportive in organizing this event, practically transforming it into a step towards strengthening the cordial relations between the two nations." ABOVE: In the lagoon of Millennium Atoll, an island belonging to the central Pacific Ocean nation of Kiribati, a resilient reef attracts a colorful crowd of fish. Though area reefs have suffered from extreme ocean-warming events, they've bounced back—in part because herbivorous fish prepare dead corals for new ones to grow atop them.

Overview

Master one of our economy's most rare skills and achieve groundbreaking results with this "exciting" book (Daniel H. Pink) from an "exceptional" author (New York Times Book Review).

Deep work is the ability to focus without distraction on a cognitively demanding task. It's a skill that allows you to quickly master complicated information and produce better results in less time. Deep Work will make you better at what you do and provide the sense of true fulfillment that comes from craftsmanship. In short, deep work is like a super power in our increasingly competitive twenty-first century economy. And yet, most people have lost the ability to go deep—spending their days instead in a frantic blur of e-mail and social media, not even realizing there's a better way.

In Deep Work, author and professor Cal Newport flips the narrative on impact in a connected age. Instead of arguing distraction is bad, he instead celebrates the power of its opposite. Dividing this book into two parts, he first makes the case that in almost any profession, cultivating a deep work ethic will produce massive benefits. He then presents a rigorous training regimen, presented as a series of four "rules," for transforming your mind and habits to support this skill.

1. Work Deeply
2. Embrace Boredom
3. Quit Social Media
4. Drain the Shallows

A mix of cultural criticism and actionable advice, Deep Work takes the reader on a journey through memorable stories—from Carl Jung building a stone tower in the woods to focus his mind, to a social media pioneer buying a round-trip business class ticket to Tokyo to write a book free from distraction in the air—and no-nonsense advice, such as the claim that most serious professionals should quit social media and that you should practice being bored. Deep Work is an indispensable guide to anyone seeking focused success in a distracted world.
